Filed: July 28, 1999

Before BOWMAN and HEANEY, Circuit Judges, and LONGSTAFF,¹ District Judge.

PER CURIAM.

General Security Services Corporation (GSSC) petitions for review of an order of the National Labor Relations Board finding that GSSC violated Section 8(a)(3) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act by demoting, transferring, suspending, and terminating employee Alfred Cracolici on account of his union activity. The Board cross-applies for enforcement of its order, which, among other things, requires GSSC to cease and desist from engaging in the unfair labor practices found, directs GSSC to offer reinstatement to Cracolici, and orders the posting of a remedial notice.

Having reviewed the record and having considered the arguments of the parties, we conclude that substantial evidence in the record as a whole supports the Board's findings. No error of law appears, and there is nothing to be gained by rehashing the facts of this fact-intensive case. Accordingly, without further discussion, the petition for review is denied and the Board's cross-application for enforcement of its order is granted. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
